

REMPAC

Your sanding sponges manufacturer.

WHO WE ARE

Rempac is a U.S. manufacturer of foam products for a wide-range of consumer, industrial, and medical applications.

Founded in 1962 by Reuben Bushell, Rempac has been family owned and operated for the last 61 years and is currently in its third generation of the Bushell family.

WHAT WE DO

The high quality of our products is demonstrated by our list of world-class customers. We currently manufacture products for 3M, Norton/St.Gobain, TrimTex, Libman, Walmart, and Rubbermaid, and have been doing so for over the last ten years, some longer.

We manufacture over 50 million sponges per year. You will find Rempac-manufactured products on store shelves at Home Depot, Lowes, Target, Dollar General, Dollar Tree.

Rempac also supplies products for the construction, medical, automotive, and packaging industries.
